

HOMONYMS

Homonyms are two or more words that are pronounced the same way but have different meanings and/or spellings. In this game, we supply the definitions, and you must not only provide the homonyms, but SPELL them correctly as well!

1. Consumed; or, seven plus one.
2. A fragrance; or, a penny.
3. A blossom; or, a basic baking ingredient.
4. Plant seeds; or, to use a needle and thread.
5. The top of a mountain; or, a quick, furtive glance.
6. A mortgage or cash advance; or, solitary.
7. A part in a play or movie; or, dinner bread.
8. Having a husky or weak voice; or, a stallion or mustang.
9. Temporary stop in action or speech; or, an animal's feet.
10. Spooky, creepy; or, one of the Great Lakes.
11. A man who served the king in the Middle Ages; or, the period from sunset to sunrise.
12. The basic structural unit of all living organisms; or, to offer something for purchase.
13. Bread, before it's baked; or, a female deer.